
Work-related injuries don’t just hurt the injured. Taking the time to identify and minimize risks in the workplace will prevent injuries. Together we can show the world that Saskatchewan is a leader in injury prevention. Together we can achieve Mission: Zero.

Safety is job one.